

WoCo UNIVERSITY

AN 8-WEEK COURSE ON IOWA WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Smith, Mills & Schrock Law is excited to announce WoCo University, an in-depth workers' compensation law course, starting July 10 at our new Smith, Mills & Schrock Law training center in West Des Moines!

Join us for this complimentary 8-week course where you'll learn the latest Iowa workers' compensation trends and industry changes with other local claims professionals and peers.

Attendees will also have the opportunity to earn CLEs, CEUS and nursing credits.

Each week, the class will meet for a 50-minute class over lunch with presentations on causation, rate, paying benefits, industrial disability, alternate medical care, vocational rehabilitation and settlements. A complimentary lunch will be provided by Smith, Mills & Schrock Law each week.
